Catch you on the flip side!

And while you're at it, be sure to buy our KNUCKLES back-up, written and inked by Ken Penders, with pencils by Ron Lim. Here's what readers had to say about SONIC #85 and 86:

Dear Sonic-Grams,
I'm a long-time Sonic fan and had been collecting your comic, but I stopped for three years. Then I saw that Sonic-shaped pasta offer for a free comic and sent away for it. I got SONIC #83 in the mail, and now I'm back (drawn like a hedgehog to chili dogs). Issue #85's "The Big Payback" was excellent! I had heard that issues #86-87 were going to feature the return of Mecha-Sonic, and I couldn't wait, but now I'm pretty content just to reread #85 until they get here. The ending was hilarious and the cover is like a video game fight. I thought it was funny when Tails got clocked by Silver Sonic II's foot (even though it knocked him out for a while). Ron Lim's art has gotten better since the SONIC ADVENTURE adaptation. Keep up the good work!
Andrew Davis (age 13), Mechanicsburg, PA

Face it, Andrew— you're hooked on that hedgehog-goodness! And who can blame you? Welcome back!

Dear Sonic-Grams,
I've always wondered why Tails has not just one but two tails. Is he some kind of mutated fox? Why isn't Rotor a freedom fighter anymore? What does Nate Morgan do exactly? That's it for now.
Scott Mrozek, Joliet, IL

Tails was born with two tails, Scott. No one knows why, and no one has ever asked— they've just accepted him for who he is. Who says Rotor isn't a freedom fighter? Did you miss Issue #91? What does Nate do, you ask? He was King Max's royal advisor, but as of next issue, he'll be taking on a new role...

Dear Sonic-Grams,
I like your comics a lot, and I hope they continue for years to come. I also have a few questions. 1) What happened to Rodos, Arachnis, Sarvely, and Predator Hawk? 2) What happened to those twin vessels emerging from hyperspace back in issues #77 and #78? By the way, I loved the SONIC ADVENTURE tie-in.
Joel Johnson, Maine, NY

1) Arachnis and Kodos appeared in this issue, Joel! Expect Snively in the next one! 2) If you read issues #91-92, you know exactly what happened to those spaceships that were headed for Mobius!

Dear Sonic-Grams
You're awesome! You make the coolest SONIC comics ever! I am a fan and read them every chance I get. I just can't get enough of that crazy, evil-fighting hedgehog. But you also can't forget about his trustworthy sidekick Tails. I think Amy should get a shot at the spotlight too, but Tails has more experience at fighting. I just have one question: Whatever happened to Scratch and Grounder? Did they get fired by Robotnik?
Nicole Schumacher (age 10), House Springs, MO

Thanks for writing, Nicole! If you were lucky enough to pick up SONIC SUPER SPECIAL #15 (the action-packed finale to that series), you might have seen Scratch and Grounder lurking about in "Sonic Spin City," a tale written and penciled by Off Panel's own Mike Gallagher!

Greetings Archie Comics,
My name is Justin P. Reese, also known as "The Sonic god" on the internet, because of my extensive knowledge of SONIC THE HEDGEHOG games, as well as the comic book series. I recently read issue #86. I'll sum it up in one word: AWESOME. Never have I seen such talented artists. Truly magnificent. You deserve a lot of credit, more than I can give. The return of Metal Sonic will prove a difficult challenge for Sonic, especially with the unknown gem-like power source coming from its chest. I must read the next issue to learn the answer. Ah, the "Off Panel" strips. These are really funny and remind me of the old days of the SONIC comic when the stories were more comical. Please keep these mini-strips in the issue if it's not too much trouble. Reading last month's Sonic-Grams, I see yet another person who wants Tails and Fiona to "hook up." Would that make Barty Koala jealous? Hmmm, if you ask me, Sonic and Tails should stay bachelors for a while. Marriage, or "hook ups," would destroy the storyline— but I do think there should be some relationship issues. One final word: the catch phrase "Keep On Juicin" seems to be more interesting to me than "Is that your final answer?" Some catch phrases stick, while others get fairly annoying. Funny, such a long letter with no questions. It's probably because I have all the answers.
Justin P. Reese, Anoka, MN

Thanks, Justin!

Dear Sonic-Grams,
Let me start off by saying I love the SONIC THE HEDGEHOG comics!!! Issue #85 was cool! Silver Sonic II was awesome, but Sonic was just the guy to handle him! Now I have some questions: 1) What issues make up the SONIC ADVENTURE adaptation? 2) Will Turbo Tails make another appearance? 3) Is Zonic Sonic's brother? I was shocked to find out that KNUCKLES had been canceled.
See you later!
Gabriel Laughlin, Mt. Hope, KS

1) SONIC ADVENTURE spanned issues #79-85 of SONIC THE HEDGEHOG, and SONIC SUPER SPECIAL #13, Gabriel! 2) For the answer to that question, you might want to check out issues #96-97! Who says this isn't the year of hedgehog happenings? 3) No, Zonic is an alternate zone-reality version of Sonic himself (you follow?)

Dear Sonic-Grams,
I like the comics, but the new Robotnik really stinks. He looks like he's listening to music through headphones. I think the cover to issue #85 was more appealing than the actual story. I absolutely need to know what happened to Robotnik's Swat-Bots!
William Brown, Oceanside, NY

Robotnik's Swat-Bots were junked and replaced by RoboRobotnik's Shadow-Bots, William...

Whoops! Looks like we've run out of space to print your letters, dudes and dudettes! 'Till next time...

KEEP ON JUICIN'!
